Who we are

Frulact Group

We are a business group, established in 1987, positioned as a top-ranked innovative company in the supply of added value ingredients for the food industry.

Milestones

Focused on the future, Frulact holds extensive know-how in the food industry market with the client in the center of our operations.

Milestones

Focused on the future, Frulact holds extensive know-how in the food industry market with the client in the center of our operations.

2011

Frulact inaugurates Frulact South Africa, increasing a direct presence in the African Continent after many years leading the North African market.

2012

The Innovafruits project, implemented in Morocco for its excellent geostrategic location, strengthens Frulact's position in fresh fruit transformation.

2013

Frusenses is born as a reinforcement of Frulact's strategic guidance in positioning the Group into a new segment such as food aromas.

2017

Frulact starts a brand-new industrial unit in Ontario, Canada, meaning an entrance in the North-American region and an international presence in three continents.

2018

With a new market positioning, Frulact acquired a plant-based ingredients producer that developed a patented process for ingredients production.

2020

Ardian becomes the new Frulact shareholder, implementing a strategic plan to accelerate growth, business expansion and talent development.

2020

A strategic move in the North-American market, Frulact acquired the yogurt fruit preparations product line of the company Sensient Technologies Corporation.

2020

Frulact works on the expansion of the Canadian manufacturing plant in Kingston, Ontario, increasing production capacity.

Our identity & positioning

Combining research & Development with special know-how in the food area and unique synergy involving flavors, fruit preparations and plant-based products. The result is something unique: our identity.

In a competitive market we intend to position ourselves based on the following 3 key strategic points:

Growth

Frulact is committed to the growth of its businesses and with the growth of our customers

Value Creating

Frulact creates added-value through efficiency, processes, technologies and systems

Sharing

Frulact shares the value created to our costumers, stakeholders and employees.
