

Indian Night for ladies held at Kibbutz Shefayim

Song & dance at 'Indian Night'

"Indian Night", a cultural event was organized at Dvir Paragliding Landing Field in Kibbutz Shefayim area on July 5, 2005 by Astha and Suranga, two enterprising young ladies who organise exclusive tours for women to India. They have so far conducted five tours which have proved to be very successful. The evening, which included meditation, yoga and ayurveda, was held in an Indian ambience created by colourful Indian sarees, candles, incense and other decorations bearing Indian themes. Two classical dancers of Indian origin: Sarit Sunita Avraham and her daughter Liraz performed dances to the soundtrack of popular Hindi movies. This was followed by a few songs by Ms. Leora Itzhak. The gathering
