

Avi Weinstein

Tour Educator

Date of Birth:
15/05/1974

Lives in Yok'neam
Married to Adva since 2002
Father of Ofir (09/2005) &
Noam(01/2007)

Avi was grew up in the unige town of Zichron-Ya'acov (near Haifa) and belong to one of the founders families that came to Eretz- Israel in the first "Alia" (1882).

Those routes together with the fact that Avi has been travelling all over Israel since he was 13, gives him a strong filling of connection to land of Israel.

During his youth he decided to learn in the enviromental high-school of Sde-Boker in the Negev, the same place that David Ben Gurion is burried. Since then Avi is inlove with this land and familiar with all it's regions especially with the desert- the place that the 12 tribes became the people of Israel. After travelling in the southern part of Africa, getting multi-ethnical experience Avi learned in Bar-ILan university the "study of the land of Israel" & Biology. Combining this degree with tour guiding course he was qualified as a tour guide in 2002.

Avi loves people and love to work with a variety of groups and different carictures of people. His experience includes: Congregational groups, Birthright groups, Israeli senior citizens, Israeli companies (group dinamics), educating guides from youth movements, groups of families with small children etc.

A quote from Avi:

"Every group has it's own journey. I'm here to provide the right experience- because I belive that a true journey creates an experience that last forever".